ENGLISH

Reading time

One is never alone when one is with books. Sitting in your room with books, you can go off top faraway places, meet all kinds of people, animals, birds and a new fairy. What new! Reading will teach you many words. You will write better and speak well. Read books to discover a lot of new things.

Read at least two storybooks out of the list of books given below or any other books of your choice.

- The enormous crocodile - Roald Dahl
- Panchatantra stories
- Mr. Fox - Roald Dahl
- The famous five series - Enid Blyton
- The Cherry tree - Ruskin Bond

Do the following exercises on a separate sheet/sheets -
$>$ Draw any one of your favourite character from the story (on an A4 size sheet)
$>$ Pick out 10 new words you have come across in your storybook and find out their meaning, synonyms and antonyms (single line thin notebook).

Writing time

1. "Every family has a story to tell." So in your own words, write the most memorable moment spent with your family on an A4 size sheet and paste the picture of that moment (if possible) to make it more creative.
2. Practice one page of handwriting using the school handwriting pattern, every alternate day. Use a single line thin notebook to do the work.
3. Write a short paragraph in about 100-120 words on "A Visit to Zoo".

Use these 'Value points' to write the paragraph.

- How did you get the chance for this trip?
- What preparations did you do for this trip?
- What all did you see in the zoo?
- What did you enjoy the most there?
- What all activities did you do there?
- Why are animals important for us?
